ICAN Unveils New Website

Last month, iCAN Research unveiled a BRAND NEW website designed to showcase our expertise in pediatric health throughout the world by sharing our collaborative work in research, clinical trials, advocacy, innovation and science. As we head into 2019, the new iCAN Research website will help guide our internal organization as well as to provide support to the greater pediatric community. We will announce new information, exciting opportunities and more ways to support iCAN chapters, community sponsors and our sponsoring partners. We hope you visit our website at www.icanresearch.org frequently to stay on top of the latest news in the pediatric community. Also, visit Instagram, Facebook, Twitter and Linked In @icanresearch. We hope you 'like' and 'tag' #icanresearch in your community events too! If you would like to be featured on the website, send your news and pictures to amyoher@icanresearch.com.

Call for Chapter Posters and Scientific Abstracts

Recently, iCAN Research announced that it is seeking submissions for two exciting opportunities (Scientific Papers and Chapter Posters) to be presented at the 5th Annual iCAN Research & Advocacy Summit to be held in Kansas City, Missouri on June 24th – June 28th, 2019 in partnership with KIDS Kansas City and Children's Mercy. ## Learn More about I-ACT

Many of you were able to meet Janelle Allen from I-ACT for Children (the Institute for Advanced Clinical Trials for Children), this summer in Edinburgh, Scotland. It was a pleasure to have her attend our annual conference. If you were unable to meet Janelle, you can access I-ACT's website through the following link: iaactc.org and you can connect with Janelle at janelle.allen@iaactc.org to learn more about I-ACT's site network and how to join their efforts. Thank you, Janelle, for sharing with us about I-ACT for Children, whose mission is to accelerate and enhance the quality of pediatric clinical trials. We look forward to seeing you soon and working with you at our upcoming iCAN Conferences.

iCAN Spotlight

Did you know? December is National Human Rights Month and Universal Human Rights Month? Join iCAN in supporting patients and families around the world.
